

2026 Harvest for Hunger Campaign Awards

Bag of Hope & Edmond V. Worley

The Bag of Hope and Edmond V. Worley Awards are each given year to one organization that demonstrates unparalleled commitment to Harvest for Hunger. Organizations are considered for these awards based on the participation of their employees, creativity of their drive, and support of hunger relief efforts.

- The Bag of Hope Award is awarded to organizations with more than 200 employees.
- The Edmond V. Worley Award is awarded to organizations with less than 200 employees.

Examples of commitment to the Campaign include:

- Implementing more than 1 employee engagement initiative
- Incorporating an educational aspect into your campaign, i.e. showed Food Bank Video, attended webinar or coffee chat, Making Tough Choices activity
- Participating in a service opportunity with the Food Bank (On-site or Off-site) – Volunteer shift, write notes for neighbors, etc.

Rory Borgio Award

The Rory Borgio Award was established by Harvest for Hunger in honor of an exemplary teacher from Garfield Heights High School who ran one of the first school-based Harvest for Hunger drives. The award is given each year to a school that demonstrates they made hunger relief a priority during the spring months and fostered a sense of school spirit among students to make their Harvest for Hunger drive a success.

Rory Borgio Winners incorporate:

- Character building activities for their students that encourage respect, team-building, and build a philanthropic mindset
- Creative problem solving to engage with students on how to create tangible solutions for real-world problems

Student Leadership

The Harvest for Hunger Student Leadership Award is given to a student who displays exceptional leadership during his or her school's Harvest for Hunger drive. The student must have motivated his/her fellow students to participate in the school's drive, communicated the mission and vision of Harvest for Hunger, and modeled concern for his or her community for other students.

Student Leadership winners display:

- Excellent leadership skills
- Teamwork and problem solving
- Creativity and originality
