

Volunteer Assignment Profile

Communications Photo/Video Volunteer

Summary: The Communications Photo/Video Volunteer will support the Food Bank's communications team by providing assistance with photography, video shooting, and editing. Depending on the nature of the project, this volunteer will be able to perform duties remotely using their own technology.

Background: Candidates may have experience in Adobe Creative Suite, video editing software, and other design. This position is project based and is only available as projects are available.

Preferred Traits and Skills:

- Ability to learn the Food Bank's brand and mission and effectively communicate it through video/images
- Experience in creating video with captions and voice over
- Experience in photography and photo retouching
- Ability to learn new technical skills
- Ability to work independently and with deadlines

Key Functions:

- Create videos and edit photos for the Food Bank
- Take photos of Food Bank events and programs
- Other technical projects as they become available
- Attend resource gathering trips with Food Bank team to take photos, interview clients, and gather other resources for marketing purposes

Support: Food Bank communications staff will be available to assist in filming, recording, and taking photos. In some cases, volunteers may be able to use Food Bank systems and software to complete projects. Project training is available from Food Bank staff.

Attire: When working the Food Bank, attire is business casual. At program photography sessions, attire is casual. At events, attire is cocktail or business casual.

Outcomes: A Communications Photo/Video Volunteer will derive satisfaction by greatly impacting the digital and print communications and by contributing to the success and mission of the Greater Cleveland Food Bank.

Greater Cleveland
Food Bank

In addition, a Communication Photo/Video Volunteer will gain experience useful in videography, photography, and editing. A service letter will be provided on request. Point of Contact: Communications Coordinator

To apply: Please email your qualifications and typical availability to Emma Shamburger, Media Communications Specialist, at eshamburger@clevelandfoodbank.org.