

Food Bank Weekly Drive-Thru Distribution Tuesday, April 27 from 1-4 p.m. at the City of Cleveland Muni Lot

The Greater Cleveland Food Bank is partnering with the NFL, who will be presenting a monetary donation and handing out NFL-themed items to those coming to receive fresh produce and shelf-stable food.

People need to pre-register at www.WeFeedCLE.org

WHAT: The Greater Cleveland Food Bank's next drive thru distribution will be Tuesday, April 27 from 1-4 p.m., at the City of Cleveland Municipal lot. The NFL will support the Greater Cleveland Food Bank in their weekly food distribution event where thousands of people will be served via drive thru distribution. Each family/individual will receive fresh produce and shelf stable food. The NFL and Cleveland Browns will be on-site to hand out additional NFL Draft and Browns swag. There will also be a check presentation at 12:45pm for the $35,000 the NFL is donating to the Greater Cleveland Food Bank.

We have been working closely with the City of Cleveland to assure the Food Bank will still host a distribution this week, as the Muni Lot will not be available on our usual Thursday distribution day due to the NFL Draft and associated activities. The Cleveland Police and Ohio National Guard continue to help with traffic control as well as Food Bank, NFL and Browns volunteers who will be helping with client check-in and loading the cars.

We continue to implement safety measures for our staff, volunteers, and clients to ensure that this event runs smoothly and achieves its purpose - safely get food to families, seniors and individuals who need it.

As always, for our distributions, please remember:

- We encourage everyone to pre-register at www.WeFeedCLE.org. You will receive a code and you will need to bring that code with you to display in your car window as part of the check-in process. This will help minimize personal contact and estimate the number of people expected to attend. Everyone needs to pre-register. If you need additional help, please call the Food Bank Help Center at 216-738-2067.
- No walk-up clients.
- This will be a drive-thru process only and you will not need to leave your vehicle for any reason. You MUST be in a vehicle to receive food.
